

Seattle Federal Executive Board

is pleased to present the first in a series of three forums

THE FROG AND PRINCE

Darcy Rezac

Tuesday, March 29, 2005
1 p.m. - 4 p.m.

The Town Hall
1119 8th Avenue
Seattle, WA

During this forum Darcy Rezac, author of THE FROG AND PRINCE: Secrets of Positive Networking, will inspire you to tap into the power of it all. Using ideas from his book, he will address the following ideas:

- The philosophy of positive networking which will change the way you think about networking
- The evolutionary science of "small worlds" and "the strength of weak ties"
- How "permission to network" will empower you to become a better worker

These forums are designed to help government employees broaden their knowledge of leadership and quality of life issues. This series has been created in partnership with Elliot Bay Book Company. Benefits of the Book Forums to individuals and agencies include:

- Increased job satisfaction
- Lifelong learning opportunities
- Networking opportunities
- An opportunity to meet nationally recognized authors
- Learn from motivational and inspiring speakers

Subscription series are available to agencies at a cost of $3,000 which includes 10 tickets to each forum for a total of 30 tickets. Each event in the series will include refreshments, a workshop with the author, a copy of the featured book and a book signing. Individual tickets are available at a cost of $110 each. Approved methods of payment include credit/purchase card, personal check, agency purchase order or training document. No refunds will be given 10 days prior to event date.

Name	_____
Agency	_____
Number of tickets	_____
Phone	_____
Email	_____
Credit Card Information	_____
Number	_____
Expiration	_____
Security #	_____

Return completed form to:
Seattle Federal Executive Board
915 Second Ave., Room 2942
Seattle, WA 98174

Or copy this page and fax it to:
(206) 220-6132

Or email requested information to:
seattlefeb@gsa.gov

